Christie Warden reported on the Band banquet, it will be held on May 1st at the Diamond Oaks country club. Cost is $25.00 colors are black, white and red. No theme as of yet. There is still a need for volunteers on the various committees.

Historian reported that she needs a list of Solo and Ensemble medal winners

Old Business:

Last month we voted to purchase a laptop but we need to add the software program that will help with the books and inventory of all equipment.

Jane Lyons made a motion to purchase such software for an approximate cost of $550 2nd by Vickie Jordan

Mr. Hinkle discussed band fees and how they would work for this coming year.

Kelly made a motion to add a meal card for adults in the amount of $20.00 which would help offset the cost of meals and make sure all volunteers were able to eat.

2nd by Alyson Corral

Mr. Hinkle asked for two volunteers to be added to the nominating committee, Alyson Corral and Amanda Dorton volunteered.

New Business

Kelly made a motion to repay her father for repairing the guard's cart a sum no greater than $60.00. 2nd by Robin Crosthwait sp?

Jane Lyons brought up the issue with band members not getting the Mexican dinner as a part of the band fees. Several parents were confused by this. It was decided to add a disclaimer in the band fees explaining that the Mexican dinner is the only Friday night that will not be included in the price of meals in their band fees.

Kelly made a motion to waive the fees for students/parents who qualify for the lone star card or Free lunch and reduce the fees for those on WIC and reduced lunch.

2nd by Robin

After some discussion the motion passed and we will put a form in all packets for band fees next year explaining the qualification for waived or reduced band fees.

Alyson Corral Discussed selling Wings and Rings dining cards as a possible fundraiser to help offset cost of band banquet, nothing was decided.

Discussed rebuilding insides of trailer replacing tires and crank, however estimates will be gathered and brought to next meeting.

Meeting was adjourned.
